

Macromolecule - Large molecules that are formed by joining other small molecules together, making a large molecule. Also called polymers.

Polymer - molecules made of repeating units of identical or nearly identical compounds called monomers.

Monomer - Small subunit of compounds that come together to make a polymer, aka macromolecule.

MACROMOLECULES + Polymers + Monomers

* CARBOHYDRATES

• Lipids.

• Proteins •

• Nucleic Acids •

(RNR)